

Eye on Nine: Keeping You Informed

From the Office of District 9 Councilman, Carroll W. Schubert

ROUTINE BUSINESS

Now that the budget has passed, we're back to routine business. Last Thursday's (9-23-04) meeting brought with it a long agenda (the meeting lasted until 1 a.m.)...but nothing of major significance to District 9. The Council did meet in executive session to discuss and interview candidates to step in for City Manager Terry Brechtel for the interim.

INTERIM CITY MANAGER

On Friday (9-24-04), Mayor Ed Garza circulated a memo asking for support to name J. Rolondo Bono as Interim City Manager. All but two Council members signed the memo, and those two were not at City Hall on Friday. In 2001, Mr. Bono was named Deputy City Manager, but he has been working in the City Manager's office since 1977. I feel he is highly qualified to take over where Ms. Brechtel is leaving off. Today (9-30-04), Council will take a vote to officially appoint Mr. Bono as Interim City Manager effective October 1, 2004.
